New President/CEO Named at Government Printing Office FCU

Washington, DC, January 7, 2010 –

The Government Printing Office Federal Credit Union (GPOFCU) has named Mr. Timothy L. Anderson as new President/CEO. Mr. Anderson started his new position on January 3, 2011.

Prior to assuming his new duties, Mr. Anderson worked in several local area credit unions, including Senate FCU and Treasury Department FCU, as well as several banks. Most recently he managed his own consulting firm, with an emphasis on financial literacy and personal fiscal management.

Ms. LaTonya Hayes, Board Chair, said, "We are very pleased to have Mr. Anderson on board at GPOFCU. His experience in the financial services industry and his commitment to the cooperative movement and credit union ideals are a good fit with our members, who have come to rely on our Credit Union to help achieve their goals in life. The Board looks forward to a rewarding and mutually beneficial relationship with Mr. Anderson. And, based on his reputation for employee development, I am confident that our staff will enjoy working with him to further the goals of our Credit Union."

The Government Printing Office Federal Credit Union (GPOFCU), with more than $33 million in assets and 3,600 members, was federally chartered in 1935 to serve employees of the U.S. Government Printing Office in Washington, DC. GPOFCU also currently serves GPO's retirees and cafeteria employees, select employee groups (SEGs), and individuals who live, work, worship or attend school in the areas of Southeast, Southwest, Northeast and most of Northwest Washington, DC. For additional information about GPOFCU, contact Janet Miles, or visit www.gpofcu.org.
